KOESTER-PAULETTE WEDDING

Miss Lucille Geraldine Leonard, of Cheslerfield, becomes Bride of Emmett E. Massey, of Orange.
Powell-King Wedding.

An interesting event of yesterday evening was the marriage of Miss Edith Argyle Carneal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Argyle C. Carneal, to D. McCarty Fitzhugh Thornton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. McCarty Thornton of this city. The ceremony took place in the residence of the bride's parents, 202 West Grace Street, at 6:30 o'clock, with Rev. J. Y. Bowman, rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church, officiating. The wedding music was rendered by Professor Ernest H. Cosby, assisted by the choristers from the church. The parlors were arranged in quantities of yellow and white flowers, and the hall was decorated in pink chrysanthemums.

The bride's dress was of white crepe meteor and silk net, trimmed in duchess and rose point lace, and her veil of illusion was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mr. Carneal gave his daughter away. Mrs. Edgar Cary Upshur, who was her sister's dame of honor, wore her own wedding gown of white satin and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Dae Thornton, sister of the groom, and Mary McCaw. They were gowned alike in white silk net with yellow girdles and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Park P. Thornton attended his brother as best man, and the ribbons were held by little Jane Carneal O'Flaherty and James Rawles and John D. Clothier, Jr. The little girls wore costumes of white Georgette crepe with yellow ribbons and carried old-fashioned nosegays of lilies of the valley, edged with lace frills.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Thornton left for a wedding trip, and they will be at home after November 1 at the Graham, in this city. For Mrs. Cooke's guests.

Among the entertainments given in Roanoke this week in honor of Mrs. Lucian H. Cooke's guests, Mrs. Albert Thornton, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Lammie Ruthford, of Lynchburg, Va.; Lakemont, Ga., and Mrs. Frank Duke, of Richmond, was a luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. T. W. Goodwin, Mrs. D. W. Plunkett gave a luncheon in their honor yesterday, and the same afternoon Misses Lila and Lulu Terry entertained them at bridge. Miss Pauline Massey gave a luncheon in their honor Thursday, and Mrs. C. S. Churchill a bridge party this afternoon. Koester-Paulette.

The home of Mrs. and Samuel W. Paulette in Farmville was the scene of a beautiful autumn wedding yesterday at 5 o'clock, when their only daughter, Virginia Beauregard, became the bride of H. J. Koester, Jr., of Bristol, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Lambeth of the Farmville Methodist Church, officiating. The home was decorated throughout with a color scheme of yellow, green and white, the stairway being attractively arranged with an altar of golden-rod and chrysanthemums, from which fell festoons of Southern smilax, connecting it with the door of the sitting room. J. L. Jarman sang "Perfect Day," just before the entrance of the bride party. Mrs. Joe Martin and Miss Minnie Blanton, at the piano and violin, played the wedding march from Lohengrin and during the ceremony played, "Call Me Thine Own."

The bride party descended the stairway, and entering the parlor, stood before an altar of chrysanthemums, ferns and lighted candles. Little Misses Lillie and Ruth Paulette, dressed in white, with yellow sashes, carried the ribbons which formed an aisle through which the bride party passed. The four groomsmen were Messrs. Lewis, Vernon, Gordon and Walker Paulette, brothers of the bride and the bridesmaids were Misses Lillian Beige, Viva Paulette, Lockett Walton, Mollie Beyerley, Edna Irby and Bessie Paulette, who wore white net dresses with yellow butterfly bows and carried white chrysanthemums.

The maid of honor, Miss Grace Walton, wore a dress of yellow chiffon and carried an armful of yellow chrysanthemums. Little Miss Janie Gray Paulette, dressed in white, acting as flower girl, preceded the bride, scattering flower petals in her path. The bride entered with her father, who gave her away. Her wedding gown was of white crepe meteor trimmed with silver lace. Her long court train fell from the shoulders, where it was fastened with opalescent ornaments and her veil was caught with orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were Misses Lillian Beige, Viva Paulette, Lockett Walton, Mollie Beyerley, Edna Irby and Bessie Paulette, who wore white net dresses with yellow butterfly bows and carried white chrysanthemums.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Koester left for an extended Northern tour, visiting New York, Boston and other cities. They will be at home at 505 Moore Street, Bristol, after November 1.

Miss Paulette is a graduate of the State Normal School of Farmville. Mr. Koester is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Koester, Sr., of Cincinnati, Ohio. The out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were, Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. C. Smith, Petersburg; Miss Mollie Beyerley, Cary, Miss, and Miss Edna Irby, of Blackstone.

Beginning this week tea will be served at the Catholic Woman's Club every Saturday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock. Members are invited to come and bring their friends.

Green-Suggs.
An interesting wedding of yesterday afternoon was that of Miss Winifred Aldridge Suggs, of Alameda, Cal., to John A. Greear, of Bluefield, W. Va., which was quietly celebrated at 2 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. T. McFadden, D. D., pastor of the church, and only a few intimate friends were present. The bride wore a smart evening costume of African brown cloth with a hat to match. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Lee, of Alameda, and is quite popular in that city. The groom is a prominent businessman in W. Va., where he and his bride will be at home, following an extended wedding tour.

Among the out-of-town guests present at the wedding yesterday were Misses Ida Suggs, Gertrude Jones, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fisher, Thomas Harvey, Jr., of Winston, N. C., and Edward L. Thayer.

Pretty Wedding.
A beautiful marriage took place at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leonard, about the Hopkins Road in Chesterfield County, about two miles from Richmond, when their daughter, Lucille Geraldine, became the bride of Emmett E. Massey, of Orange County. Rev. Mr. Dietz, of the Baptist Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Leon S. Flournoy, of Randolph-Macon College, Ashland. The drawing-rooms were attractively decorated with ferns, pink and white dahlias, lighted with pink and white candles, on mahogany pedestals, which formed an aisle for the bride party. Pink dahlias and maiden-hair ferns were used in the dining-room. Schumann's "Traumerei" was rendered, and Miss Mattie Lee Ellington sang "The Hour That Gave Me You" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Alice Bohmer Rudi, who also rendered the wedding marches. The little ring-bearer was Evelyn Massey, who carried silk with pink ribbons, who carried a ring in a white rose. The bride descended the stairs with her sister, Miss Myrtle Leonard. She wore a handsome suit of blue gabardine trimmed in fur, with a black velvet hat trimmed in blue plumes and fur. Her flowers were lilies of the valley and orchids. The maid of honor was gowned in pink crepe-de-chine edged with white with pearl trimmings. She carried Killarney roses. S. Talmage Massey was best man and entered with the groom. Following the ceremony the bride and groom left for a Northern tour. On their return they will make their home with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lane, of Nassau. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Haughton, of Newport News; Mr. and Mrs. John Leonard, of Baltimore; Mrs. Eugene West and Reid West, of Chester; Mrs. J. W. Matthews, of Rocky Mount, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Weston, of Matthews County, Va.; Miss Marie Chevington, of Granite Springs; Mrs. M. E. Edwards and daughter, of Richmond; Mrs. B. S. Harris and son, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Massey, of Mine Run; Mrs. A. A. Lane, of Nassau; Mrs. H. T. Land, of Richmond; Mrs. S. Talmage Massey, of Richmond; James and L. C. Jones, of Richmond; Mrs. C. M. Cheatham and daughter, Miss Esther Cheatham, of Richmond; Mrs. A. B. Cooke, of Richmond; Miss Bettie Bottoms, Mrs. P. A. Mann, of Richmond; Mrs. L. E. Ullman, of Richmond; and Miss Ruth Hatcher, of Richmond. Miss Jennie West, of Richmond; Mrs. Brooks, of Richmond; Mrs. C. M. JUDGE LINDSEY EJECTED FROM COURT IN DENVER

Contradictory Statements Made by Attorney, Using Emphatic Term, and Grabbing Him by Collar.

DENVER, COL., October 14.—Ben R. Lindsey, judge of Denver's juvenile court, was ordered ejected from the criminal division of the District Court here today by Judge W. D. Wright. The court's action was taken when Lindsey contradicted statements made by Attorney J. J. Sullivan, using an emphatic term and grabbing Sullivan by the coat.

Sullivan was presenting arguments for the defense in the case of Frank L. Rose, on trial charged with conspiracy to ruin Lindsey. He declared Lindsey has toured the country delivering lectures in which he maligned Denver. At this point Lindsey called Sullivan a liar, and grabbed him by the coat. Court bailiffs sprang to each man, and under the order took Judge Lindsey from the room.
Judge Lindsey subsequently issued a signed explanation of his election, criticizing the court's action during the trial and the conduct of the case by the prosecution.
The statement said:
"When Sullivan reached the point charging me with maligning my city and State, and the judge sat quietly without interrupting him, I got up and deliberately called him a liar. The judge was entirely responsible for this necessity."
Judge Lindsey further expressed the belief that Judge Wright was prejudiced against him, and made "improper rulings."

NORFOLK AND WESTERN HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., October 14.—The annual meeting of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company was held at the general offices of the company in this city today. More than 75 per cent of the entire capital stock of the company was represented in person or by proxy. Among those present at the meeting were President L. E. Johnson, John P. Green, W. W. Atterbury, William G. MacDowell, Joseph I. Doran, Philadelphia; Joseph Wood, Pittsburgh; Colonel Walter H. Taylor, of Norfolk; and E. H. Alden, secretary, of Philadelphia. The stockholders elected the following directors: Joseph I. Doran, Victor Morawetz, Walter H. Taylor, John P. Green, Lee Johnson, William G. MacDowell, H. C. Frick, Joseph Wood, W. W. Atterbury, N. D. Maher and M. C. Kennedy.

Following the stockholders' meeting the board of directors met and organized by the election of the following officers: L. E. Johnson, president; N. D. Maher, first vice-president; William G. MacDowell, vice-president in charge of finance and accounts; T. S. Davant, vice-president in charge of traffic; Joseph I. Doran, general counsel; E. H. Alden, secretary and assistant treasurer; Joseph B. Leacy, treasurer.

Auto Men Are Charged With Annoying Girls
Mayor Shifts Ninth Street Hack Stand to Meet Complaint of Citizens.
DID NOT MAINTAIN ORDER
Failure of Chauffeurs to Comply With Mayor's Admonition Results in Their Removal From Business College Corner.

Charges that drivers of jitney and other cars who have been using the parking place on the east side of Ninth Street, just north of Broad, have made themselves obnoxious to young women attending classes at Southside Business College led the Mayor yesterday to rescind his order of May 7, designating this point as a hack stand, and enter a new order assigning the opposite side of the street for this purpose.
Complaints against a few of the drivers making use of this parking place, as well as against other persons who have used the hack stand as a pretext for congregating near the entrances to the business school, have been filed with the Police Department. While a majority of the men making use of the hack stand in the legitimate conduct of their business have not abused the privilege, it was thought wise by the Mayor to shift the automobiles to the opposite side of the street.

COPY OF NEW ORDER
The new order is embodied in the following communication:
October 14, 1915.
Major Louis Werner, Chief of Police, City.
Sir.—On May 7, 1915, I designated certain hack stands in Eighth and Ninth Streets of this city, the order thereof concluding with the following language:
"One of the streets above designated was made a hack stand some years ago, but the designation was revoked on account of complaints of disorder of those in charge of the vehicles. Let it be understood that those in charge of the vehicles at the public hack stands must at all times keep order, and not interfere in any way with the peace, comfort and quiet of others."

On account of representations made to me, including your own report thereon, I am convinced that the above warning has been ignored by persons using "the east side of Ninth Street, north of Broad, from the property line on Broad Street to the south line of the alley," and that such persons have made themselves obnoxious to the occupants of the Smithfield Building and others going to and from that building for legitimate purposes.

I, therefore, revoke so much of the order of May 7, 1915, as designates the east side of Ninth Street, north of Broad, from the property line on Broad Street to the south line of the alley as a hack stand.

In place thereof I hereby designate the west side of Ninth Street, north of Broad, from the property line on Broad Street northwardly to a point three (3) feet from the first telegraph pole north of Broad, which point you will please mark plainly with paint on the street as safety zones are marked. Respectfully,

PLAINTIFF LOSES SUIT AGAINST ALKALI PLANT
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
AUNINGDON, VA., October 14.—The case of Margaret A. Thompson vs. the Mathieson Alkali Works, on trial here for a week, was ended yesterday. The case involved the right of the defendant company to use the north fork of Holston River as a dumping place for the waste products of its plant. The defendant demurred to the evidence, and the jury returned a verdict of $301, subject to the decision of the court on the demurrer. It is understood that the jury, in assessing the damages, did not agree that the plaintiff had suffered that amount, but rendered a verdict so that the case might go to the Court of Appeals. Judge P. W. Campbell, of the Circuit Court, sustained the demurrer to the evidence, the plaintiff thereby losing her case. It was disclosed in evidence that the plant cost over $500,000.
